Budget

Art. 2
1 Before registration for the study tour takes place, a budget created by the committee needs to be approved by the board of the foundation.
2 If no action is taken in accordance with the first paragraph of this article, or if, in opinion of the board of the foundation, unreasonable expenses are incurred outside the budget, the expenses may be recovered from the committee members who organise the study tour.
Registration

Art. 3

1 Registration for the study tour is in principle open to all members.

2 The registration is open for a minimum of two weeks. If, after this period, the number of registrants is less than the number of places available, the committee may extend the registration period for a period determined by themselves. When all places have been filled, the extended registration period ends.

3 The opening and closing dates for registration need to be announced at least before the opening date. Preferably it is published via the website of the study association and the promotional screens.

4 At the moment of closing the registrations, it is fixed whether a participant will or will not travel directly after or before the study tour aboard 2023 South Korea, this cannot be adjusted.

5 Registration implies a declaration of agreement with these regulations.

6 At the registration a deposit of €300,- must be paid. The registrant will receive a receipt of the payment. The receipt is also a certificate of registration. The deposit of €300,- needs to be paid digitally to NL 86 INGB 0008 0355 04 in the presence of the commissioner of the study tour abroad 2023 South Korea or a board member of the foundation. Exceptions on this can be made on an individual bases by the board in consultation with the committee.

7 The committee will ensure that everyone who registers receives a copy of these regulations and a date on which the lottery will take place.

8 The study tour has a minimum of 18 participants. At least ten of these participants need to join the entire journey. The remaining spots will be available for participants who continue to travel before or after the study tour (which are called transit places). In the case there are fewer transit places than candidates, there will be drawn lots for these places. This drawing of lots will take place after the drawing of lots for the participants. In case a participant is eliminated for the transit place and therefore does not want to join the study tour, the participant is obligated to pay the entire journey unless a substitute participant is found.
Admission

Art. 4
1 If after the registration period mentioned in article 3, second paragraph, the number of registrants is higher than the available places, the committee will determine the order of admission for the study tour. Admission is granted for as many enrolments as there are places available.
2 The date at which the determination of the order of admission will take place needs to be established at the beginning of the registration period.
3 Committee members and scientific supervisors are always admitted.
4 The committee can, in consultation with the board, record a target group for the study tour. This group shall be established before the start of the registration period. A target group consists of people who are more interested in participating the study tour than others.
5 For the lottery the registrants are divided into the following categories:
   a Members which are part of the target group which is recorded by the committee according to the fifth paragraph of this article. This group constitutes of third years students which have at least 130 ECTS and fourth- and fifth-years students which do their masters. For this group, eight places are available. Students who are eliminated for this category will join the next category to which they belong.
   b Members in possession of a propaedeutic certificate.
   c Members which are at the date of determination of the order of admission longer than one year registered at the department of Applied Physics at the Eindhoven University of Technology.
   d Members.
6 The categories will be granted in the order of a up to and including d, starting with category a. Within each category the admission will be determined by drawing lots.
7 The drawing of lots will take place with closed notes on which the names of the registrants in the relevant category are written down.

Supervision

Art. 5
1 The determination of the order of admission is attended by a supervisor, appointed by the board in consultation with the committee. In order to ensure objectivity, the supervisor is not registered for the study tour and not a member of the committee.
2 The supervisor shall ensure that the determination of the order of admission is objective and in accordance with the rules of these regulations. The supervisor will report about this determination to the board.
3 If the supervisor or the board considers that the determination of the order of admission is not in accordance with these regulations, the board can, in consultation with the supervisor, invalidate the determination of the order of admission.
4 If the determination of the order of admission is invalid, a new determination of the order of admission needs to take place. A new supervisor can be appointed for this.

Contract

Art. 6
1 Persons who can participate after the admission has been established must sign a participant contract before the 16th of January 2023 and this contract needs to be handed in digitally at the commissioner of the study tour abroad 2023 South Korea or a board member of the foundation before the 16th of January 2023.
